NEW CARS WILL ASSIST DRIVING

The automobile shows are about over and we have seen the new models for 1938. They are improved, and have better brakes, tires, lights, bodies, steering devices and springs. Generally speaking, they are stronger, more beautiful and safer than any previous model. How different they are in every way from the 1906 models, or even from the 1936 motor cars.

But the 1938 model driver or pedestrian is about the same as the earlier models, and no matter how hard the manufacturer may try to build safety as well as beauty into his car there will still be accidents as long as pedestrians are careless and motorists ignore the simple rules of good sense and decency in their driving.

The National Safety Council suggests that we try to improve our driving and walking habits as much as the manufacturers have improved their cars. We will have safer streets and highways if YOU will do your part.—San Mateo County Traffic Safety Commission.

L. A. Husbands in Wife Exchange, Children Go With Mother

In a four months' process of divorce and remarriage, two Claremont, Calif., couples recently squared the "eternal triangle" when Ira Ashcroft, 54, wealthy banker, honeymooned with the former Mrs. Louise Voss, 27. At the same time, John Voss, 30, school teacher, wed the former Mrs. Hortense Ashcroft, 50. Ashcroft denied the couples had planned to trade mates and declared "it was just a natural development." SUPERVISORS IN EFFORT TO MAKE CONSOLIDATION

Provide For Bond For Unnamed Employe As "Deputy County Purchasing Agent"

Plans for the reorganization of county government by combining the offices of executive and purchasing agent, and setting up a central service bureau were being consumated by the County Board of Supervisors Tuesday of this week, in two separate actions.

First was transfer of $113 from the unbudgeted reserve to pay for a tabulating machine operator in the executive's office for the month of December.

Second was fixing of a $1000 bond for a "deputy county purchasing agent," as yet unnamed. The sum of $5 was voted to pay for the bond.

It was assumed that the new deputy purchasing agent will work out of Bolison's office when the new consolidation ordinance becomes effective.

The board also transferred $179 from unbudgeted reserve to the courthouse fund to pay for a relief operator at the telephone switchboard.

Although the proposed consolidation of the county executive and purchasing agent offices will be fought in the court by Stanley Kelly of Burlingame, incumbent purchasing agent, it seems apparent that the board plans to proceed with consumation of the plan.

Deputy District Attorney Daniel Sullivan blocked the passage of a

CURRENT PLAY TO CLOSE SOON AT LOCAL HOUSE

After Going Begging For Producer Became Popular New York Stage Hit

"Justice," the John Galsworthy play at the Alcazar Theater, is nightly duplicating the success of the piece when it opened in New York some years ago.

This is the play that went begging for a producer for more than six years and when finally put on the stage changed the trend of the American Theater, brought a practically unknown playwright into the forefront and was the outstanding sensation of the stage of the season.

The local production is staged by the San Francisco Federal Theater Project and has met with the approval of San Francisco's severest critics of the theater. "Justice" will close next Sunday night, December 12.

PUBLISHERS OF COUNTY ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Page In C. N. P. A. Rate Book Will Be Unique Form Of Advertisement Of Unit

The regular monthly session of the San Mateo County Press Association assembled at Pete and Mary's, about a mile south of Redwood City, Monday evening of this week.

A dinner preceded the business meeting.

L. E. Harris of the Menlo Park Recorder was named president at the annual election of officers. He succeeds Sam H. Winklebeck, publisher of the Redwood City Tribune.

Harry Butler of the San Mateo Times was elected vice president, succeeding Harris, and George McQueen, general manager of the Burlingame Advance, was named secretary, succeeding Mrs. Anne Brubaker of the San Mateo Times.

Installation will take place at a meeting in San Carlos January 3.

It was reported that the page advertisement of the Association to appear in the California Newspaper Publishers Association rate book will be unique in a number of features, and will boost all of San Mateo County and its newspapers. This annual edition is distributed among all advertising agencies in the United States, and is used as a reference for various markets of California.

J. C. Chastain, former Redwood City publisher now at Belmont, was welcomed into the association, representing Bernice Batterton, new publisher of the Belmont Courier and San Carlos Bulletin.

The next monthly dinner meeting will be held in San Carlos in January. Host publishers will be Lester Lafferty, publisher of the San Carlos Enquirer, and Miss M. Batterton, publisher of the Belmont Courier.

Those present were: Sam Winklebleck, Redwood City Tribune; Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Brubaker, San Mateo Times; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butler, San Mateo Times; J. C. Chastain, Belmont Courier; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lafferty, San Carlos Enquirer; L. E. Harris, Menlo Park Recorder; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pitschke, Daly City Record; H. P. Bradshaw, Daly City Record; Mr. and Mrs. George McQueen, Burlingame Advance, and H. B. Cook Jr., San Carlos.

TOO MUCH HEAVY FOOD

Lew Wenger, a resident of Sabetha, Kansas, has concluded that too much roughage might have killed his cow, which died this week.

A post mortem disclosed that the cow had eaten a pint of cinders, a two-inch nail, an assortment of smaller nails, staples, tacks, wire and slate.

STATEMENT BY COUNTY CLERK

Although the local daily papers of December 7, published the announcement of the promotion of this office of Carl E. Peterson, formerly Deputy Court Clerk in Department No. 2, to the position of Chief Deputy County Clerk, and the appointment of Sidney P. Hinman, son of the late County Clerk E. B. Hinman, as deputy court clerk in Department No. 2, it is felt that since a number of others had submitted applications for the position of chief deputy, and particularly as such appointments are of public interest, a further statement from this office may be apropos at this time.

While there may still be some who do not heartily endorse all provisions of our County Charter, yet we firmly believe there are none who do not agree with principles embodied therein providing for the promotion of those in the county service who are qualified and rightfully entitled to such consideration if and when an opportunity is presented.

Being a firm believer in that principle of our Charter as the expressed will of our citizens and in order to promote the harmony and efficiency of the office to the end that the best interests of the county as a whole, may be served, rather than any personal interest, the promotion of Mr. Carl Peterson has been effected.

In deference, however, to Mr. Homer Hargrave, Deputy County Clerk in Department No. 1, who has been in the county service longer than Mr. Peterson, may it be said that although in point of service he might be considered as entitled to the promotion, he did not wish to change positions, choosing rather to continue as Deputy Court Clerk in order to further pursue the study of law.

The appointment of Mr. Sidney P. Hinman as Deputy Court Clerk is made both on merit and as a tribute to his late illustrious father, who has given much to this county and as well to the State of California.

COLLEGE TO SELL JAYSEE BUILDING

Mayor Frank P. Simmen of San Mateo advocates the buying of the present San Mateo Junior College building when the school has moved to its new campus, in order to provide San Mateo grade schools with a junior high.

The buying of the present Jaysee building would benefit the San Mateo grammar schools, which now need a junior high school plant, and would aid the junior college by giving the institution additional funds with which to build up its new plant.

The San Mateo Junior Chamber of Commerce is expected to endorse such an arrangement, as their outgoing board recommended such endorsement to the incoming officers.

FAST RUNNERS IN COMPETITION AT TANFORAN

Some Of Best To Start In Half Moon Bay Handicap Tomorrow

Eighteen sterling thoroughbreds have been nominated for the $2500 added Half Moon Handicap at Tanforan tomorrow, Saturday, December 11. The star studded list of nominees, announced by Racing Secretary Julius G. Reeder, reveals the presence of the champion from Uraguay, Amor Brujo; the Argentine star, Sargazo, and Fair Knightess, generally regarded as the best 4-year-old mare in American training.

The outcome of the race—of keen interest on two continents—will have a definite bearing on the $10,000 added San Francisco Handicap at Tanforan, December 18, as well as the fixtures to be run at Santa Anita during the winter. The Half Moon Handicap is at a mile. Amor Brujo, considered by horsemen and clockers alike, as the greatest threat to Seabiscuit, will be making his second American start, and faces first class competition for the first time in this country. He was a galloping winner here in his only start over a drying out track.

The black champion from Uraguay will run coupled with Sargazo, a smashing winner last out, as the H. A. Luro-A. E. Silver entry.

Charles S. Howard, San Francisco turf patron, is represented by a battery of four stars—Fair Knightess, Chanceview, Advocator and Exhibit. Howard plans to run Seabiscuit only in the San Francisco Handicap, but he is providing a stern test for Amor Brujo with his powerful entry.

Without exception, all of the topliners have come up to this engagement in excellent style. All have turned in keen trials and are expected to run to their best form.

Other aces in the encounter include Primulus, twice conqueror of Indian Broom last year; the entry of Gleeman, and Rockwood, both performing in splendid fashion; King Saxon, America's champion miler of 1935; Count Atlas, a New York invader; Sabueso, an Argentine importation which won a handicap in his last start; Tick On, which made a great comeback this meeting; High Vote, a sprint sensation; Marynell, now going in top form; and such other good ones as Your Honor, Little Nymph and Rommy.

OUR POLICY IS RESTATED

Complaints reach the editor from time to time that certain items called "news" have been omitted from these columns.

The policy of The Record will be that no happening that has transpired more than ten days in the past will be printed.

For instance any happening from Wednesday up until Saturday evening of the week before publication on Friday must be in this office not later than Monday afternoon of the week of publication. Those happenings from Saturday until Wednesday noon, must be in by that time—Wednesday noon for publication on Friday.

The dead line is Wednesday afternoon on anything occurring up to Wednesday noon from the Saturday before, unless exception is deemed expedient for some good reason.

For instance, a party held on June 21 is not news if handed in on July 3. Also, if it happened two or three weeks ago, it has no news value.

TO HAVE XMAS PARTY FOR DALY CITY CHILDREN

General Arrangements Committee Is Selected To Complete Plans For Disbursement of Cheer.

The general committee appointed by the Daly City Merchants Association, at its last regular meeting, to arrange matters pertaining to the form of Christmas celebration in Daly City, was called together, Tuesday of this week, at the City Hall by General Chairman W. E. Pitschke.

When the session convened, it was found that a large number of our city organizations had sent representatives to the meeting.

The delegates present then proceeded to organize by the selection of a general arrangements committee from among their number.

George Wheeler was selected to act as chairman, with Mrs. Katherine Foreman as assistant chairman. A number of sub-committees were appointed and W. E. Pitschke was named to act as treasurer.

It was decided to hold a Christmas Party for all the children of every section of Daly City, at the Civic Center, in front of the City Hall, Sunday evening, December 19.

There will be presents and candy and fruits distributed to each child. The children are urged to preserve order, and obey instructions of committee members, both men and women, so that there may be harmony and good feeling among all and that those in charge of the affair may not be hampered in performing their duties properly.

The City Council has agreed to install lights and erect a platform for the entertainment features of the program.

Superintendent A. J. Bodien stated that a large Christmas tree from the southern section of San Mateo County has been procured and will be erected on the City Hall lawn and elaborately decorated.

The committee arrangements will be augmented by addition of others as soon as all organizations in the city are heard from.

The committee members urge every organization in Daly City to make a liberal donation to the funds in order that this may be made the most successful community celebration ever held in this city.

The executive board of the Community Welfare Association will meet this evening to discuss and take action as to the part that organization will play in the affair, as it was decided not to wait until the next regular meeting of the entire body.

All representatives present stated their organizations would heartily co-operate in every way possible.

Another meeting of the arrangements committee will be held this Friday evening at the Daly City Hall. All civic organizations are urged to send representatives.

FROM SUBLIME TO RIDICULOUS IN PRODUCTION

Drama And Sophisticated Comedy To Give Way To Holiday Presentations Of Vaudeville And Music

Austere drama and sophisticated comedy will give way to the whimsical stage productions that contribute to the good will of the Yuletide season during the holidays at the Federal Theater Project's Alcazar Theater in San Francisco. Shaw, Galsworthy, O'Neill, Sinclair Lewis and Elmer Rice will all be wrapped in cotton and put on a high shelf until after New Years Day to yield the stage to the charm of a Charles Dickens Christmas story, "Cricket On The Hearth."

It will be presented by a marvelous cast of professional actors and every afternoon will see another group of professionals, the marionettes, in a series of timely marionette plays, Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" or "Alice In Wondreland," by George Carroll. To wind up the holiday season in a burst of hilarity Max Dill has long been lining up a top-hole vaudeville bill with Pacific Coast variety stars and a lot of new Nate Goldstein music, with two performances a day and a midnight performance New Year's Eve.

There you have it, a theater program of presentations ranging all the way from Max Dill to Shakespeare, or vice versa, all in the short space of two weeks.

Something To Crow About

Consternation and great amazement was expressed by court house employes at Bucyrus, Ohio, one day this week when a beautiful crow, seemingly quite tame, flew into the probate judge's chambers and hopped about contentedly for some time before flapping away again.

Jeff High School Basketball Games

With a score of 40-10 against the varsity and 27-12 against the 30's, the Balboans defeated Jefferson's basketball teams on their pavilion, Friday of last week.

Although the score was against the local boys throughout the entire game, the spirit was not lessened. Those who attended the game can well say that the Jeffersonians put up a good fight against the overpowering Buccaneers.

This was the first game of the season for Jefferson and, although we lost it, Coach Biggs believes that with a little more practice and experience, our boys will win several of the remaining games.

Points were made by the players as follows:

30's—E. Doyle 4, Barghini 4, Millet 1, Kennedy 2, Christian 1; total 12.

Varsity—C. Murray 5, Kanter 2, H. Smith 1, Compagno 1, Olson 1; total 10.

The following is a schedule of the P. A. L. basketball games to be played during the coming season:

January 21, Jefferson at Sequoia; January 28, Jefferson at Palo Alto; February 4, San Jose at Jefferson; February 11, Jefferson at San Mateo; February 18, Burlingame at Jefferson; February 25, Jefferson at South City; March 4, South City at Jefferson.

Romantically Linked With Belgian King

Lady Anne Cavendish-Bentinck, 21, granddaughter of the Duke of Portland, whose name was recently linked with that of King Leopold of Belgium after unexpected visits to England of Leopold, Queen Moth Elizabeth and Prince Charles, the king's bachelor brother. Official denials followed rumors that Belgium's king visited the Duke of Portland's Welbeck Abbey estate on a romantic mission concerning Lady Anne. Since the death of Queen Astrid in an automobile accident two years ago Leopold's name has been connected with European princesses.

Italian American Classes Taught Here

Twice each week, after the Parochial school on Wellington avenue has dismissed for the day, other pupils gather for instruction in Italian.

A group of Italian-American people, interested in preserving their native tongue, its customs and traditions, are making this training possible for young people, commencing as early as eight years of age.

Although a small tuition fee is charged, there is considerable expense entailed for rent, teacher's salary and expansion.

The dance, announced elsewhere in this issue of The Record, is for the purpose of giving financial aid to this worthy cause.

Those persons who are interested may bring their children direct to the school on Wellington avenue or correspond with the Italian School Committee, 3112 San Jose avenue, Daly City.

NOTES ON OUR ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

Others Answer Correspondence From Local School

To motivate the teaching of language arts and as an integrated social study, language arts activity students of the Woodrow Wilson Elementary School have been corresponding with children in the various states of the Union. Responses received have made our children realize that the extreme climatic conditions, as well as other uncomfortable natural situations which exist in other states, are "real" situations and not just a fancy of the publishers of geography and history text books.

Mrs. Burns and Mrs. Lewis, teachers who are carrying on this worth while motivated activity, report children are more eager to learn language form, usage and penmanship so that their cousins in the other states will envy them as they reconstruct the experiences and advantages in the way of radio, motion pictures, arts and crafts, domestic science and music appreciation made possible in the Daly City schools.

Royal Engineer Sets Train Speed Record

He wore white overalls and his smiling face was begrimed. In spite of grease and dirt this worker was none other than His Majesty King Boris of Bulgaria, who had been exercising his pet hobby, that of engineering the streamlined train, the Coronation Scot.

This monarch is deeply interested in locomotives and on this particular occasion he had made the run from Euston station to Bletchley, a distance of 47 miles, at the royal speed record of 88 miles per hour.

With beaming face he announced, "It's the best train journey I ever made."

Dickensian Actor In Alcazar Play

WILL VEDDER

As Cokeson, in John Galsworthy's great play, "Justice," which closes at the Alcazar Theater in San Francisco Sunday night, December 12, Will Vedder was acclaimed by the critics for his splendid work and his Dickens-like characterization of the part, that of an elderly clerk in a law office. Beginning next Wednesday, December 15, Vedder will play a real Dickens character in a Dickens play, "Cricket On the Hearth."

This play is based on one of Charles Dickens' rarest and most charming Christmas tales, one of the group of those poignantly tender stories of the Yuletide season that, with its kindly humor and pathos, does so much to make the spirit of Christmas a living thing.

Vedder plays the part of Caleb Plummer, a kindly old toy maker.

American Legion Prepare For Xmas

Daly City Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary will hold its regular meeting, Wednesday evening of next week, at which time plans will be completed for the annual Christmas Party.

Several members, including the president, are also participating in the arrangements for the Community Christmas Party to be held at the Civic Center on December 19.

A number of members assisted in a large Christmas celebration at Palo Alto Hospital, Friday of last week.

Who Said Honor Among Thieves

Kirk Prather, warden of the Kansas state prison, speaking at a banquet one evening this week, remarked:

"You've heard there's honor among thieves, and that's true."

"If they give you their word, it is 100 to 1 they'll keep it." The warden added that about all any man has is his honor or his word.

While he spoke, thieves stole four overcoats and a hat from the cloakroom adjacent to the banquet hall.

POPULAR GIRL DIES SUDDENLY

The sudden death of Miss Dorothy Hayden, 20-year-old daughter of Edward and Milo Hayden of Junipero Serra boulevard near Westlake avenue, on Sunday, came as a distinct shock to her many friends.

The young woman was employed as a stenographer by a San Francisco insurance firm. She had not been enjoying the best of health for some months, but her condition was not considered as being serious.

The girl was found dead in bed at her home by her father, late Sunday afternoon.

The surviving relatives are her parents and a brother, Kenneth Hayden.

Funeral services were conducted from W. C. Lasswell & Co., at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon of this week, followed by interment in Olivet Memorial Park.

Miss Hayden was to have become the bride of Louis Picetti, 25, of 811 Pierce street, San Francisco, on Thursday of this week.

An inquest is pending.

CALIFORNIA LEADING THE NATION!

A note of cheer for California's prosperity was wrapped up in a neat package of imposing figures made public the other day.

We lead every state in the union, including the densely populated state of New York which lays claim to twice as many inhabitants as California, in the total number of car registrations!

In the first six months of the year, this state chalked up 2,476,487 motor vehicle registrations, to New York's 2,360,408 in the same period.

Purchasing power in California is packing a huskier wallop than it was a year ago, and the thousands of workers in the state's automobile plants and in the heavy industries of the East, will reap some of the benefits of this added push in the pockets of California's Mr. John J. Consumer.

Many Eligible For Old Age Security

The San Francisco field office of the Social Security Board recently hit an all-time peak in the number of claims for old age insurance benefits handled in a single week. While most of these came from San Francisco and Santa Clara Counties, it is estimated that hundreds of people in both counties are still entitled to apply for these cash payments.

From the counties of Santa Cruz, San Mateo, Marin, Mendocino and Sonoma only a few claims have been received, and it is believed that a great many people in these counties are also entitled to apply for these benefits under the old age insurance provisions of the Social Security Act.

The persons who come under these provisions are, in general, employes who have reached the age of 65 since January 1, 1937, and who have worked in commerce and industry, including wholesale and retail activities, during that period. In addition, the near relatives of persons who have worked as above outlined and who have died since January 1, 1937, before reaching the age of 65, are also entitled to apply for cash settlements.

Those interested should write to J. B. Cress, 402 Humboldt Bank Building, San Francisco, for forms and other information.

The Sewing Club met, Thursday of this week, at the home of Mrs. Nellie Semmons. This was the last meeting until after the holidays.

WHY NOT TURN BUSINESS OVER TO COLUMNISTS

Judging From Some Statements Of Commentators They Would Be Best Fitted For The Job

It seems strange that some Americans should have apprehensions as to the trend of national economic affairs when we have in our midst so many people who know the answers to all the questions.

According to one group the circumstance that everything has not been solved is due to the errors of the first brain trust. Therefore all that is required to send stocks up, end unemployment, balance the budget and a few other things is for the President to call in a few newspaper columnists, and radio commentators, who have been telling him how to do it and how not to do it for a long time.

In the interest of economy, he might call in just one columnist, to my mind the best of the lot, and let him do the job. The man I have in mind is, of course, my old friend General Hugh Johnson. Everybody knows that he is a good soldier. In addition, we have his own confession that no New Deal policy has been effective or has been properly administrated, except the NRA, under his complete direction.

The inference from all of the General's writings is that had he had charge of the agricultural problem instead of Secretary Wallace, crops would never have failed and prices would never have diminished. If he, instead of Harry Hopkins, had been entrusted with relief, the unemployment would now be all economic royalists; had he, instead of Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau, had direction of the fiscal affairs of the government, unbalanced budgets would by this time be only an archaic expression.

This leads to the very natural deduction that the only way to avoid dictatorship would be to make General Hugh Johnson the dictator. Then he would have a reasonably adequate field for his varied and manifold talents.

As a matter of fact, General Johnson, whatever we may think of his explosive and widespread formulas of solving all governmental policies out of hand, has really shown up the newspaper commentators in the field that was theirs exclusively until his advent. He has more wit than any of them. He alone has contributed more in epigram as well as in epithet, in wisecracks as well as in downcracks, than all the balance of them combined.

After all, presumably the purpose of the columnist is to entertain. The newspaper writer, even when graced with the privilege of putting his name above his story, rarely, if ever, has had the experience or perhaps the time to make himself an authority on the problems that have vexed the world since the beginning. In my estimation at least, a happy use of words is more important than any pontifical expression of opinion from a chap who has got to get out a thousand or two words by press time.

However fantastic his contemporary proclamations may be, we can be glad that Hugh Johnson is in the column business. Any man who cold give the world such a mouth-filling and significant phrase as "Ants in his pants" justifies his literary existence at least.

OBSERVATION OF VARIOUS THINGS IN OUR CAPITAL

Interesting Address On Subject Of Homecraft By Experienced Student Of That Art

(By Hart Goodrich)

"My definition of a work of art is something made as well as is possible and which answers some useful purpose," said Allen H. Eaton, authority on American Homecrafts, at the Exhibit of Rural Arts in the Agriculture Building, in a recent address.

Mr. Eaton has gathered a very interesting group of hand-made articles from practically every state in the Union, including rugs, linen, pottery, musical instruments, harness, wood carvings, quilts, basketry and metal work. In his lecture he stressed the value of homecrafts, not only from their monetary value but also as a useful hobby for leisure time and as a satisfaction gained from creating beauty and utility in a single object.

There are hundreds of human interest stories behind these artistic accomplishments. The speaker mentioned the two sisters on a small farm in North Carolina who found honeysuckle vines (while a lovely flower to some, still a difficult problem to farmers in this locality) usurping the place of more productive crops. They hit upon the idea of making honeysuckle vine baskets and are now noted for their beautiful basketry.

Then he told the story of the little boy in Utah who often played truant from his rural school and who, after a two weeks absence was found in an old shack up in the hills carving amazingly lifelike animals out of wood.

There is the story of the farm boy up in Vermont who was so interested in catching and holding the beauty of snow crystals by trying to draw them that his mother finally saved enough money to buy him a magnifying glass and camera. At the age of 50 years, he had a collection of over 5000 pictures of enlarged snow crystals. This was brought to the notice of the Weather Bureau and it was found that his collection was the most complete ever made and of considerable value in the study of snow formations—a valuable contribution to science from an uneducated farm boy.

The Department of Agriculture has encouraged the homecrafts as much as possible, since many farms have become less productive as the years go by and it is necessary for the farmer to find some additional income. The majority of agriculturists are too far away from towns to be able to care for their farm and obtain part time employment except in the making of such articles as are displayed in the exhibit. Their one large problem seems to be in marketing their products. Mr. Eaton has done considerable work in organizing rural guilds, which act as cooperatives and often market the finished products of their members.

Lesson Sermon Of Christian Science

"God the Preserver of Man" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon Sunday, December 12, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

Thou openest thine hand, and satifiest the desire of every living thing. . . The Lord preserveth all them that love him:" (Ps. 145: 9, 15, 16, 20 to :).

The Lesson-Sermon will also include the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Love is impartial and universal in its adaptation and bestowals. It is the open fount which cries, 'Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters'" (p. 13).

SOME QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(By Maude Larue Ives)

Question: What is the beast of burden of northern Norway?

Answer: The reindeer, which also provides food and clothing for the people.

Question: What are some of the educational uses of moving pictures?

Answer: Valuable in the study of the bottom of the ocean with its strange plants and animals; habits of birds, reptiles and other animals; activities of insects—for example, activities of a bee colony; stories of minerals told in moving pictures; medicine and surgery—for example, process of digestion in a frog, a fowl, a lizard and in a trout have been photographed; the motions of a workman in performing a certain piece of work, studied with a view to discover waste motions. Experience has demonstrated that a youth can learn his craft more quickly by following it on the screen than by observing the actual work.

Question: Is there more than one variety of mulberry?

Answer: Yes, the white mulberry so called from the color of its fruits, cultivated in China from earliest times to provide food for the silk worm; the red mulberry, which ranges in our country from Massachusetts to Florida and west to Kansas and Nebraska; in Europe the dark, juicy fruits of the black mulberry are used as dessert and in preserving and wine making.

Question: What descriptive slogan was used formerly in describing New Mexico?

Answer: The Rip Van Winkle of the nation. A fitting name, for its early people, the Spaniards, had moved along happily for many centuries, working with out haste or worry for the simple needs of life.

Question: What is the depth of the ocean?

Answer: More than two miles—12,600 feet is the average depth, which is over five times the average elevation of the land. The greatest depth thus far discovered is over six miles—34,416 feet—which is off the coast of the Philippine islands in the Mindanao Deep. If the highest mountain, Mount Everest of the Himalayas, could be moved to this place and lowered to the bottom, its snow covered peak would rest 5000 feet below the waters surface.

ACID DAMAGE

Battery acid can cause irreparable damage to upholstery if not promptly neutralized.

Ordinary household ammonia is a good neutralizing agent. Enough to cover the acid spot should be poured on and left about a minute, then rinsed off thoroughly with a clean cloth wet with cold water.

are the two topics that will be discussed by Mr. P. F. Richard, who has recently returned from Europe, in the Prophetic Lecture Hall, 6173 Mission street, on Tuesday, December 14, at 7:45 p. m. and on Thursday, December 16, at 7:45 p. m. Scores Escape Injury As Chicago-Bound Train Jumps Track

Scores of passengers went unhurt as four persons were injured when a transcontinental train recently jumped tracks near Hayward, Calif. The locomotive and tender left the right of way and plowed up more than 1500 feet of track, ending up in a shallow gully. Engineer R. M. Conley of Oakland and Fireman M. R. Ragusa leaped from the locomotive before it turned over. Conley was unhurt, but Ragusa suffered cuts and an injured leg. Mrs. Martha Shinkuse and her daughter, Sophie, passengers, were treated for severe bruises. Photo shows the engine on its side in a Hayward orchard.

WRITERS LIKE TO TELL STORY OF GOVERNOR

Has Peculiar Notions As To Who "Won A Victory" But Knows He Did His Part

The Indiana Governor is not very tall. His black hair is slightly gray and slightly curled. When you look at his face, you know that he has worked in the fields under a hot sun. When you look at his hands, you know that he has worked hard. His tastes are not on the grand scale. Fishing and hunting in his own state are his chief relaxations. As lieutenant governor he lived simply in an inexpensive Indianapolis hotel that was spurned by many a country legislator as an "antique."

Typical of the Townsend rural bent of mind is this story that Indianapolis newspaper men like to tell of him. His campaign manager, now his secretary, suggested that they go out to the huge Butler University field house for the finals of the state high school basketball tournament.

Now, in Indiana basketball is all-important. It is the national sport. And this particular game was most exciting. Tie scores had sent it into a second overtime period. The field house was a bedlam. Mr. Townsend surveyed the scene for a while. Then he turned to a friend.

"My," he said, "but you could stack a lot of hay in here."

That is the farmer-governor who brought a measure of peace to steel while neighboring governors waited hopefully for the government to act or floundered hopelessly as their own efforts went amiss.

"Nobody won a victory," he said in discussing the steel peace. But Inland is sure it has not yielded to the C. I. O. And the union men are sure that they have obtained the best settlement yet achieved in the industry. And Governor Townsend, you may surmise, is sure that he has done a good job.

MANY BICYCLES USED

More than 175,000 cyclists pass through Berlin's streets every day, according to details of a traffic census taken over a period of 12 months.

On Sundays the number swells to between 110,000 and 112,000.

PATCHED TUBES

Inner tubes which need several patches to repair them should be discarded. This is particularly true if the punctures are close together.

Several patches near one spot have a tendency to throw a wheel out of balance, causing shimmy and other steering trouble.

PHILADELPHIA BULLETIN

British automobile manufacturer got the laugh when he lost his pass and had to buy a ticket to the automobile show, but we wouldn't be satisfied until he had to pay cash for one of his own cars.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRL SCOUTS

The members of the Jefferson Union High School Girl Scouts, besides being an active group, are busy making gifts for Christmas.

These girls spend each Monday evening making head bands, lanyards and straps for camera cases out of leathe,r along with potholders and many similar articles.

They have also made plans for many activities in the near future. These consist of a horseback ride, a roller skating party, ice skating and a bicycle ride.

The group meets every Monday from 7:15 to 8:30 p. m. at the home of the Scout leader, Miss Young. Visitors are always welcome at these meetings and those interested in this type of gathering are urged to attend, so that they may get a better idea of the work carried on by these scouts.

JAYSEE COEDS ANNUAL DANCE

This evening the San Mateo Jaysee coeds will hold their annual fall semi-formal dance in the college gymnasium with Hal Griffin's Golden Bear orchestra providing the music.

Jaysee students are electing their student body officers this week to serve during the coming spring term. Two votes are being taken to provide majority decisions.

Vance Adler, center, and Dan Bates, end, were named to the all-Conference football eleven by vote of all the coaches. The two players have been stars at San Mateo Jaysee for two years.

Fall basketball practice got underway this week with Coach Murius McFadden calling together his men in preparation for the conference season.

FLUSH RADIATOR

The car radiator should be frequently flushed and refilled with fresh water during the warm summer season.

When refilling, try to use soft water if obtainable, because it does not contain large quantities of mineral substances, such as lime, which have a tendency to clog the radiator.

The finale will be "O, Come All Ye Faithful" to be sung by the audience and the cast.

The program will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

No Excuse For Reckless Driving

"Drive Carefully" was the main idea of an interesting address delivered by Mr. J. Hersenberger, head of the San Francisco Traffic School and the Police Traffic School, to the Jefferson High School students Tuesday afternoon of this week. He gave various examples of the terrible results of reckless driving.

To leave a deeper impression on his audience, Mr. Hersenberger presented a moving picture entitled "Remember Jimmy." The film portrayed the tragedy which falls on a family after a serious accident, using Jimmy's parents as an example of millions of families in America who suffer fatalities and serious injuries due to the carelessness of many drivers.

The fact that a great percentage of the people killed or permanently injured are children, was particularly stressed. In conclusion, Mr. Hersenberger said that one should drive as he would expect another to, if his mother was crossing the street.

proposed amendment to the county commercial dog kennel ordinance when he pointed out that the regulations proposed by the planning commission would almost bar kennels from the county.

The latest amendment, he said, would restrict kennels not only to industrial areas, but from any area within 500 feet of any residence even though the residence be located in an industrial section. The board referred the matter back to the district attorney's office. It will be changed to read that no kennel may be located within 500 feet of the boundary line of a residential area.

San Francisco bakers, irked by stringent regulations imposed by the San Mateo County Health Department, sent representatives to the meeting of the board of supervisors.

J. W. Henderson ,attorney for the California Bakers' Association, appeared before the board and stated that the regulations drawn up by Dr. Charles C. Gans, county health director, are "unreasonable, unfair, and impossible." He threatened to take the ordinance to court if the health department insisted in enforcing its regulations.

Assistant District Attorney Daniel Sullivan, who Tuesday night told the board that it may be advisable to change the regulations, explained that he referred specifically to the once a month medical examination of all employes. He defended the ordinance in regard to its general regulations.

County Health Director Charles C. Gans, has announced he is going to insist on enforcement of the law and regulations in every detail.

"DANGER ZONES IN T. B. BATTLE"

Christmas Seals as sold by the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health Association and elsewhere in the country from Thanksgiving to Christmas, help to make possible the tuberculosis testing and x-raying with follow-up examinations as shown in these photos. Although the number of deaths have been reduced, tuberculosis is still the leading cause of death with young women between 15 and 30 years of age. It also takes 6½ as many men in the lowest economic as the higher. The young woman to the left is having an x-ray following a tuberculin test, as was given in our high schools with last year's Christmas Seal funds, she was found to have been infected with the germ causing the White Plague, as were 376 other high school students. All of these students have been x-rayed to discover the degree of infection and are under their own physicians or under the supervision of county agencies responsible for their care. The young man has been sent to his physician by his employer for a thorough physical examination which includes an x-ray of the chest.
